For the 30th anniversary of the Paralegal Program, the graduation speaker will be Camille Stell, a 1984 graduate of the Paralegal Program, former instructor and advisory committee member and current mentor to many of our graduates. The Raleigh-Wake Paralegal Association created a scholarship in her name.

Camille Stell is the Director of Client Services at Lawyer's Mutual Liability Insurance Company of N.C. She plans and develops marketing and communications initiatives and develops and strengthens relationships with policy holders, the NC legal community and business community and NC law schools. Camille has twenty plus years of experience in the legal industry including 8 years with the former Kennedy Covington, now K&L Gates, LLP, where she was responsible for marketing and business development activities for the law firm's Raleigh and RTP offices. She maintained practice group liaison responsibilities for several regional practice groups including, Real Estate; Land Use, Planning & Zoning; Sustainable Development; Coastal Development; Corporate, Bankruptcy & Financial Services; Life Sciences and the firm wide Health Care group.

Camille served as President of the Triangle Area Legal Recruiters Association. She is past Chair of the Law Practice Management Section of the North Carolina Bar Association (the first non-lawyer to serve as chair of any NCBA section) and is an active member of the Legal Marketing Association (South East Region, Raleigh chapter) and Board member of Triangle Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW). She served 8 years on the editorial board of Legal Assistant Today magazine and 2 years as the Supplements Editor for North Carolina Lawyers Weekly. She currently serves on the editorial advisory board of Women's Edge magazine and Carolina Paralegal News.
