- HOLY WEEK REVIVAL TO BE LED BY NOTED
METHODIST BISHOP AT AMITY UMC
 - Sun – Tues, March 16 – 18 @7pm

Chapel Hill, NC. March 7, 2008. Amity United Methodist Church in Chapel Hill will host 3 NIGHTS 4 GOD from Palm Sunday through Holy Tuesday, March 16 – 18. Each service will have a special emphasis and feature a chorus from the highlighted group.

On Palm Sunday, March 16, at the 11:00 am worship service, children will process through the church with Palms. Youth will be the focus of the Sunday evening service, men the Monday service, and women the Tuesday service. Each service begins at 7:00 pm. EVERYONE is invited and encouraged to attend EACH NIGHT of the revival, which promises to be an emotionally fulfilling and spiritually satisfying kick-off to the holiest week of the Christian year.

3 NIGHTS 4 GOD will be led by Bishop Marion Edwards, who served as Bishop of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church from 1996 – 2004. Bishop Edwards was instrumental in the establishment of the United Methodist Church's Russian Seminary in Moscow. The Marion Edwards Recovery Center Initiative (MERCRI, Goldsboro, NC), which works to alleviate the suffering of those impacted by disaster, poverty, or adversity, is named in his honor. Bishop Edwards currently serves as Bishop-In-Residence at LaGrange College, LaGrange, GA and is widely acclaimed as a gifted preacher.

The Rev. Vernon Tyson, pastor, and Amity United Methodist Church parishioners cordially invite you to join them for worship, study, fellowship, and outreach. Sunday morning services are at 11:00 a.m. Revival services are Palm Sunday, 11:00 am, and Sunday – Tuesday, March 16 – 18 at 7:00 p.m. Amity is located next door to the YMCA in Chapel Hill, 825 North Estes Dr., at the corner of Estes Dr. and Martin Luther King Blvd. For more information you may call 967-7546 or visit their website, amityumc.org.
